

Kenneth F. Neuman

Kenneth F. Neuman (Ken) is the founding shareholder of Altior Law, P.C., a boutique business law firm in Oakland County that specializes in complex commercial litigation. For those of you not familiar with the firm, “altior” is Latin for “higher,” and the mission at Altior Law is to raise the standards of the profession, both in terms of higher ethics and in giving back to the profession we love. Running for the OCBA board is consistent with that mission.

For the past 35 years, Ken has practiced exclusively in business law, both on the transactional side and in the courtroom. Throughout his career, Ken has tried numerous complex commercial cases to juries, as well as bench trials and arbitrations, representing plaintiffs and defendants. In addition, he has had the privilege of serving as an arbitrator in over a dozen matters, and as a mediator in over 100 commercial cases, helping parties and their counsel resolve their disputes. From this wide range of experience, he has learned to listen, strategize, and find solutions to people’s problems.

In addition to his legal training, Ken is a registered Certified Public Accountant and member of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants. His financial education and training have been a tremendous help to Ken in his career to address the tax and accounting issues that exist in practically every situation.

As for Ken’s commitment to “giving back,” he currently sits on the board of advisors for his alma mater, Wayne State University Law School. In addition, he is a director of the Western Golf Association for the Evans Scholar Foundation, whose mission is to provide full academic scholarships to underprivileged kids who demonstrate high character and a strong commitment to hard work and education. Ken has also recently completed a six-year term as a master in the American Inns of Court program. And, having been a member of the OCBA for nearly 30 years, Ken is a member of the Business Court and Counsel Committee and recently served on a panel presentation on financial issues in litigation. Furthermore, Altior Law has been a long time and consistent sponsor of OCBA events and is a leadership firm in its support of access to justice.
